INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVES KIRKTON (Sponsor), JONES (63), OXFORD, PACE,
McCREERY, NEWMAN, ELLINGER AND SCHUPP (Co-sponsors).

5345L.011

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 452.340, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to child support.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 452.340, RSMo, is repealed and two new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 452.339 and 452.340, to read as follows:

452.339. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Higher education", any community college, college, or university at which the child attends classes regularly;

(2) "Institution of vocational education", any postsecondary training or schooling for which the student is assessed a fee and attends classes regularly.

2. In any action for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or action to establish or modify child support, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child to provide for the educational expenses of the child or children of the parties for costs associated with attendance at an institution of vocational education or higher education, whether such child is of minor or majority age. Nothing in this section shall preclude the court from requiring the child to be responsible for a portion of such child's educational expenses.

3. An application for educational expenses may be made before or within one hundred twenty days after the child has graduated from a secondary school or completed a graduation equivalence degree program, or reached the age of eighteen, whichever is later. The authority under this section to make provisions for a child's educational

17 expenses extends only to periods of college education or vocational or other training after 18 graduation from high school. The educational expenses may include, but shall not be 19 limited to, room, board, dues, tuition, transportation, books, nondiscretionary fees, 20 registration and application costs, medical expenses including medical insurance, dental 21 expenses, and living expenses during the school year and periods of recess, which sums may 22 be ordered payable to the child, to either parent, or to the educational institution directly 23 or through a special account or trust created for such purpose, at the discretion of the 24 court.

25 4. The following shall apply for a child to remain eligible for such continued 26 educational parental support:

27 (1) If the child enrolls for and completes at least twelve hours of credit each 28 semester, not including summer semester, at an institution of vocational education or 29 higher education and achieves grades sufficient to reenroll at such institution, the 30 educational parental support obligation shall continue until the child completes his or her 31 education or until the child reaches the age of twenty-two, whichever first occurs; and

32 (2) Each parent and the child shall sign any consents necessary for the educational 33 institution to provide the supporting parent or parents with access to the child's academic 34 transcripts, records, and grade reports. The consents shall not apply to any nonacademic 35 records. Failure to execute the required consent may be a basis for a modification or 36 termination of any order entered under this section. Unless the court specifically finds that 37 the child's safety would be jeopardized, each parent is entitled to be informed of the name 38 of the educational institution the child attends.

39 5. When enrolled in at least twelve credit hours, if the child receives failing grades 40 in half or more of his or her courseload in any one semester, payment of educational 41 support shall be terminated and shall not be eligible for reinstatement.

42 6. When determining the cost of postsecondary education, the court may consider 43 the cost of attending an in-state public institution for a course of instruction leading to an 44 undergraduate degree and shall include the reasonable costs for only necessary 45 postsecondary education expenses; however, nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the 46 court from considering an institution commensurate with the financial resources of the 47 parents.

48 7. When considering the amount of educational support for each parent or the 49 minor child, the court shall consider the following:

50 (1) The financial resources of both parents;

51 (2) The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been 52 dissolved;

53 (3) The child's financial resources, including but not limited to the availability of 54 financial aid whether in the form of scholarships, grants, or student loans, and the ability 55 of the child to earn income while attending school;

56 (4) The child's academic performance;

57 (5) Any available financial aid or student loans available to each parent; and 58 (6) The ability of each parent to meet such expenses.

59 8. Any contribution by the child for financial aid in the form of scholarships, 60 grants, or other form of need-based performance-based assistance shall first be deducted 61 from the cost of postsecondary education and the court shall apportion responsibility for 62 the remaining cost of postsecondary education to each parent.

63 9. A child who has been diagnosed with a developmental disability, as defined in 64 section 630.005, or whose physical disability or diagnosed health problem limits the child's 65 ability to carry the number of credit hours prescribed in this section shall remain eligible 66 for educational child support so long as such child is enrolled in and attending an 67 institution of vocational education or higher education, and the child continues to meet the 68 other requirements of this section.

 452.340. 1. In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation or child support, 2 the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to 3 pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the support of the child, including an award 4 retroactive to the date of filing the petition, without regard to marital misconduct, after 5 considering all relevant factors including:

6 (1) The financial needs and resources of the child;

7 (2) The financial resources and needs of the parents;

8 (3) The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been 9 dissolved;

10 (4) The physical and emotional condition of the child, and the child's educational needs;

11 (5) The child's physical and legal custody arrangements, including the amount of time 12 the child spends with each parent and the reasonable expenses associated with the custody or 13 visitation arrangements; and 14 (6) The reasonable work-related child care expenses of each parent.

15 2. The obligation of the parent ordered to make support payments shall abate, in whole 16 or in part, for such periods of time in excess of thirty consecutive days that the other parent has 17 voluntarily relinquished physical custody of a child to the parent ordered to pay child support, 18 notwithstanding any periods of visitation or temporary physical and legal or physical or legal 19 custody pursuant to a judgment of dissolution or legal separation or any modification thereof.
20 In a IV-D case, the family support division may determine the amount of the abatement pursuant 21 to this subsection for any child support order and shall record the amount of abatement in the 22 automated child support system record established pursuant to chapter 454. If the case is not a 23 IV-D case and upon court order, the circuit clerk shall record the amount of abatement in the 24 automated child support system record established in chapter 454.

25 3. Unless the circumstances of the child manifestly dictate otherwise and the court 26 specifically so provides, the obligation of a parent to make child support payments shall 27 terminate when the child:

28 (1) Dies;

29 (2) Marries;

30 (3) Enters active duty in the military;

31 (4) Becomes self-supporting, provided that the custodial parent has relinquished the child 32 from parental control by express or implied consent;

33 (5) Reaches age eighteen, unless the provisions of subsection 4 or 5 of this section apply; 34 or

35 (6) Reaches age twenty-one, unless the provisions of the child support order specifically 36 extend the parental support order past the child's twenty-first birthday for reasons provided by 37 subsection 4 of this section.

38 4. If the child is physically or mentally incapacitated from supporting himself and 39 insolvent and unmarried, the court may extend the parental support obligation past the child's 40 eighteenth birthday.

41 5. [If when a child reaches age eighteen, the child is enrolled in and attending a 42 secondary school program of instruction, the parental support obligation shall continue, if the 43 child continues to attend and progresses toward completion of said program, until the child 44 completes such program or reaches age twenty-one, whichever first occurs. If the child is 45 enrolled in an institution of vocational or higher education not later than October first following 46 graduation from a secondary school or completion of a graduation equivalence degree program 47 and so long as the child enrolls for and completes at least twelve hours of credit each semester, 48 not including the summer semester, at an institution of vocational or higher education and 49 achieves grades sufficient to reenroll at such institution, the parental support obligation shall 50 continue until the child completes his or her education, or until the child reaches the age of 51 twenty-one, whichever first occurs. To remain eligible for such continued parental support, at 52 the beginning of each semester the child shall submit to each parent a transcript or similar 53 official document provided by the institution of vocational or higher education which includes 54 the courses the child is enrolled in and has completed for each term, the grades and credits 55 received for each such course, and an official document from the institution listing the courses 56 which the child is enrolled in for the upcoming term and the number of credits for each such

57 course. When enrolled in at least twelve credit hours, if the child receives failing grades in half 58 or more of his or her courseload in any one semester, payment of child support may be 59 terminated and shall not be eligible for reinstatement. Upon request for notification of the child's 60 grades by the noncustodial parent, the child shall produce the required documents to the 61 noncustodial parent within thirty days of receipt of grades from the education institution. If the 62 child fails to produce the required documents, payment of child support may terminate without 63 the accrual of any child support arrearage and shall not be eligible for reinstatement. If the 64 circumstances of the child manifestly dictate, the court may waive the October first deadline for 65 enrollment required by this subsection. If the child is enrolled in such an institution, the child 66 or parent obligated to pay support may petition the court to amend the order to direct the 67 obligated parent to make the payments directly to the child. As used in this section, an 68 "institution of vocational education" means any postsecondary training or schooling for which 69 the student is assessed a fee and attends classes regularly. "Higher education" means any 70 community college, college, or university at which the child attends classes regularly. A child 71 who has been diagnosed with a developmental disability, as defined in section 630.005, or whose 72 physical disability or diagnosed health problem limits the child's ability to carry the number of 73 credit hours prescribed in this subsection, shall remain eligible for child support so long as such 74 child is enrolled in and attending an institution of vocational or higher education, and the child 75 continues to meet the other requirements of this subsection. A child who is employed at least 76 fifteen hours per week during the semester may take as few as nine credit hours per semester and 77 remain eligible for child support so long as all other requirements of this subsection are complied 78 with.] The court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child to 79 provide for the educational expenses of the child in accordance with section 452.339.

80 6. The court shall consider ordering a parent to waive the right to claim the tax 81 dependency exemption for a child enrolled in an institution of vocational or higher education in 82 favor of the other parent if the application of state and federal tax laws and eligibility for 83 financial aid will make an award of the exemption to the other parent appropriate.

84 7. The general assembly finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state that 85 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents after the parents have separated 86 or dissolved their marriage is in the best interest of the child except for cases where the court
87 specifically finds that such contact is not in the best interest of the child. In order to effectuate 88 this public policy, a court with jurisdiction shall enforce visitation, custody and child support 89 orders in the same manner. A court with jurisdiction may abate, in whole or in part, any past or 90 future obligation of support and may transfer the physical and legal or physical or legal custody 91 of one or more children if it finds that a parent has, without good cause, failed to provide 92 visitation or physical and legal or physical or legal custody to the other parent pursuant to the 93 terms of a judgment of dissolution, legal separation or modifications thereof. The court shall 94 also award, if requested and for good cause shown, reasonable expenses, attorney's fees and court 95 costs incurred by the prevailing party.

96 8. The Missouri supreme court shall have in effect a rule establishing guidelines by 97 which any award of child support shall be made in any judicial or administrative proceeding.
98 Said guidelines shall contain specific, descriptive and numeric criteria which will result in a 99 computation of the support obligation. The guidelines shall address how the amount of child 100 support shall be calculated when an award of joint physical custody results in the child or 101 children spending equal or substantially equal time with both parents and the directions and 102 comments and any tabular representations of the directions and comments for completion of the 103 child support guidelines and a subsequent form developed to reflect the guidelines shall reflect 104 the ability to obtain up to a fifty percent adjustment or credit below the basic child support 105 amount for joint physical custody or visitation as described in subsection 11 of this section. The 106 Missouri supreme court shall publish child support guidelines and specifically list and explain 107 the relevant factors and assumptions that were used to calculate the child support guidelines.
108 Any rule made pursuant to this subsection shall be reviewed by the promulgating body not less 109 than once every four years to ensure that its application results in the determination of 110 appropriate child support award amounts.

111 9. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, in any judicial or administrative proceeding 112 for the award of child support, that the amount of the award which would result from the 113 application of the guidelines established pursuant to subsection 8 of this section is the correct 114 amount of child support to be awarded. A written finding or specific finding on the record in a 115 judicial or administrative proceeding that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or 116 inappropriate in a particular case, after considering all relevant factors, including the factors set 117 out in subsection 1 of this section, is required if requested by a party and shall be sufficient to 118 rebut the presumption in the case. The written finding or specific finding on the record shall 119 detail the specific relevant factors that required a deviation from the application of the guidelines.

120 10. Pursuant to this or any other chapter, when a court determines the amount owed by 121 a parent for support provided to a child by another person, other than a parent, prior to the date 122 of filing of a petition requesting support, or when the director of the family support division 123 establishes the amount of state debt due pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 124 454.465, the court or director shall use the guidelines established pursuant to subsection 8 of this 125 section. The amount of child support resulting from the application of the guidelines shall be 126 applied retroactively for a period prior to the establishment of a support order and the length of 127 the period of retroactivity shall be left to the discretion of the court or director. There shall be 128 a rebuttable presumption that the amount resulting from application of the guidelines under subsection 8 of this section constitutes the amount owed by the parent for the period prior to the date of the filing of the petition for support or the period for which state debt is being established. In applying the guidelines to determine a retroactive support amount, when information as to average monthly income is available, the court or director may use the average monthly income of the noncustodial parent, as averaged over the period of retroactivity, in determining the amount of presumed child support owed for the period of retroactivity. The court or director may enter a different amount in a particular case upon finding, after consideration of all relevant factors, including the factors set out in subsection 1 of this section, that there is sufficient cause to rebut the presumed amount.

11. The court may award child support in an amount that provides up to a fifty percent adjustment below the basic child support amount authorized by the child support guidelines described under subsection 8 of this section for custody awards of joint physical custody where the child or children spend equal or substantially equal time with both parents.

12. The obligation of a parent to make child support payments may be terminated as follows:

(1) Provided that the state case registry or child support order contains the child's date of birth, the obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or administrative process when the child reaches age twenty-one if the child support order does not specifically require payment of child support beyond age twenty-one for reasons provided by subsection 4 of this section;

(2) The obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or administrative process when the parent receiving child support furnishes a sworn statement or affidavit notifying the obligor parent of the child's emancipation in accordance with the requirements of subsection 4 of section 452.370, and a copy of such sworn statement or affidavit is filed with the court which entered the order establishing the child support obligation, or the family support division for an order entered under section 454.470;

(3) The obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or administrative process when the parent paying child support files a sworn statement or affidavit with the court which entered the order establishing the child support obligation, or the family support division for an order entered under section 454.470, stating that the child is emancipated and reciting the factual basis for such statement; which statement or affidavit is served by the court or division, as applicable, on the child support obligee; and which is either acknowledged and affirmed by the child support obligee in writing, or which is not responded to in writing within thirty days of receipt by the child support obligee;

(4) The obligation shall be terminated as provided by this subdivision by the court which entered the order establishing the child support obligation, or the family support division for an

165 order entered under section 454.470, when the parent paying child support files a sworn 166 statement or affidavit with the court which entered the order establishing the child support 167 obligation, or the family support division, as applicable, stating that the child is emancipated and 168 reciting the factual basis for such statement; and which statement or affidavit is served by the 169 court or division, as applicable, on the child support obligee. If the obligee denies the statement 170 or affidavit, the court or division shall thereupon treat the sworn statement or affidavit as a 171 request for hearing and shall proceed to hear and adjudicate such request for hearing as provided 172 by law; provided that the court may require the payment of a deposit as security for court costs 173 and any accrued court costs, as provided by law, in relation to such request for hearing. When 174 the division receives a request for hearing, the hearing shall be held in the manner provided by 175 section 454.475.

176 13. The court may enter a judgment terminating child support pursuant to subdivisions 177 (1) to (3) of subsection 12 of this section without necessity of a court appearance by either party.
178 The clerk of the court shall mail a copy of a judgment terminating child support entered pursuant 179 to subsection 12 of this section on both the obligor and obligee parents. The supreme court may 180 promulgate uniform forms for sworn statements and affidavits to terminate orders of child 181 support obligations for use pursuant to subsection 12 of this section and subsection 4 of section 182 452.370.
